1. Expressive Reading Activity

(Read the passage expressively and record it in your mobile and share it with your teacher)

Chandarva turned and ran. His head reeled. The street dogs were coming at him from all sides. With the dogs following him, Chandarva dashed from one street to another. Terrified, he ran into a house. It was dark inside. The sound of the approaching dogs threw Chandarva into a panic. Looking for a place to hide, he stumbled and fell into a huge vessel.

Now the house that Chandarva had entered belonged to the village dyer. The dyer kept all his dyes in big vessels. The dyer kept all his dyes in big vessels.

The dyes were of several colours...green, yellow, red, purple, indigo. Chandarva had fallen into the indigo dye. Having fallen into this dark blue coloured dye, for that is the colour of indigo, Chandarva stayed there until the sound of the dogs could be heard no more.
